

From Page 1D

Cobb

or leave them at her home near U.S. 380, 11 miles west of Denton.

The sitting area at her home follows a jungle theme, complete with little stuffed monkeys, separate leopard print beds for each cubicle and cuisine served on giraffe-designed dinner ware. Extras range from dog-flavored spring water to special "yappy hours" with treats for the pets.

The sitting service at Mangun's home is generally for smaller pets with room for up to 12. Costs start at $30 for the first animal per night with the second animal's rate dropping to $20 per night.

For more information about Above & Beyond Pet Sitting Service, call Mangun at 940-365-2800.

■
P.J.'s Party Supply is now in Denton after a recent move from Sanger. Owner June Schiada relocated her party supply operation to the outlet mall at Loop 288 and Interstate 35 where she plans to expand her inventory in the 3,000-square-foot store.

Some areas targeted for expansion include the wedding section, the "over the hill" gift selection and more juvenile birthday themes, among others.

"I've got a lot of traffic coming in here," Schiada said. "It's been awesome. A lot of people see the sign on the freeway."

The address is 5800 N. I-35 in Suite 503 next door to the Bridal Co. The new phone number is 940-384-7789.

■
Seats are filling up quickly for the upcoming session with real estate attorney Jerry Carlton at the Green House Restaurant, 600 N. Locust St.

The Denton satellite of the Apartment Association of Greater Dallas is sponsoring the session, titled "How to Stay Out of Court, or Win Once You Get There."

Carlton is an attorney with the law firm of Glast, Phillips & Murray and has served in the multi-family industry for more than 23 years.

The lunch will be from a selected menu with costs ranging from $6 to $10 plus tax and tip. Reservations should be made before the session at 11:30 a.m. Thursday.

For information, call 940-383-2141.

■
Empire Imports, which opened three weeks ago at 109 Industrial, is planning an auction on Sunday, March 12.

The auction will begin with a wine tasting sponsored by Wine on the Square, and several local restaurants will provide appetizers, said owner Jim Root. Doors open at 2 p.m. with the auction beginning at 3 p.m., he said.

The new shop features French, Belgium and Dutch antiques, Root said. The business is open noon to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday and 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Friday and Saturday.

DAWN COBB can be reached at 940-566-6879. Her e-mail address is dcobb@dentonrc.com.