

“Will Call” Equipment Rental Information Sheet

Please read carefully...

You have arranged to Pickup (Will Call) your rental equipment. Please note below any special handling necessary for transport of this equipment. Please make sure the pick up is made by suitable persons, our staff is not responsible for loading or unloading equipment. As stated in our contract....

LOADING AND UNLOADING EQUIPMENT (Will-Call):

If customer has arranged for “Will Call” of equipment the customer is responsible for loading and unloading. If the Dealer’s employees assist in loading or unloading the equipment, customer agrees to assume the risk of, and hold harmless Dealer and its employees for any property damage or personal injury, regardless of whether injuries or damage are caused in whole or part by negligence of Dealer or its employees. Customer is responsible for supplying all necessary tie downs, blankets and a proper vehicle to safely transport equipment. It is the customer’s responsibility to insure the pick up person is capable of said task.
